RE: FORMS 8871 and 8872

Dear IRS:

I spoke with your representative Mitch Steele, ID# 3103916 at 877-829-5500. I asked him to clear up whether or not our office needed to fill out form 8872.

This was the answer Mitch gave me:

- 1) I could consider my office of volunteers and paid contract labor employees working on the local campaign account for Don Gaetz for Superintendent of Okaloosa County Schools, a committee.
- 2) Because we are a committee raising funds for the election of Don Gaetz for Superintendent of Schools, we are exempt from having to file 8872 due to the fact that Don is running for a local political office.

Please contact me if you do not agree that I do not have to fill out form 8872. This is all new to me.

Enclosed please find form 8871 as Mitch advised me to fill out and send.

Sincerely,

Jean Sanders

ATTN: FORM 8871
~~Atlanta, GA 39904~~ Ogden, UT 84201

Dear IRS:

I was just informed that there are new regulations regarding campaign accounts and there is a new need to file a form 8871. I have not needed an EIN before today.

I have called 1-770-455-2360 all day to get an immediate EIN. The message hangs up on me. I do not have an EIN to file electronically form 8871.

I have faxed form SS-4 to 1-678-530-6156. I was told on the message that I would receive a new EIN in five days. I do not have five days to wait.

With all this information, you will understand why this form 8871 was not electronically filed. I will fax it to you and mail it accompanied by copies of form SS-4.

Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,
